

INTERN SPOTLIGHT

MEET BETY GARCIA

Bety Garcia is a student at Trinity Washington University. Bety recently completed an internship in the Quartermaster Division.

What was your first day like at MSP?

My first day at MSP was a blur for me. I remember being nervous and scared about what I would do here. I was also excited that so many people were being friendly and helpful.

Why did you want to intern with the Maryland State Police?

I wanted to intern at the Maryland State Police Department because I'm from Maryland, and I wanted to know what was going on in the area and see what officers or troopers were up to these days. I was excited to hear that I was accepted into the department and nervous, wondering what my first day would be like.

What was the most rewarding experience during your recent internship

The most rewarding part of my internship is getting to know something new every day. I help my supervisor with any task that he asks me to do, like calling and placing orders for him. In addition, I am getting to know my co-workers, who are giving me advice or any tips they have.

Bety Garcia, a student at Trinity Washington University, said she enjoyed her experience as an intern with the Maryland State Police and is encouraging others to follow in her footsteps.

Do you have an ambassador or mentor?

I do not have a mentor or an ambassador; I do have a supervisor here at the workplace. Who tells me the task he wants done and gives me little tips here and there.

What advice would you give someone looking to join the Maryland State Police Department Internship program?

The advice that I would give to someone who wants to start in the Maryland State Police is to make sure that if you do not know how to do a certain thing, make sure to research it or ask questions; the people here are amiable and helpful. Do your best, and you will succeed!